Rev. David A. Kind, Pastor

Prayer before Worship:

Holy Father, Who has redeemed us with the precious blood of Your dear Son: Keep us, we implore You, steadfast in the faith and enable us no longer to live unto ourselves, but to Him who died for us and rose again, even the same Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Introit

Isaiah 66:10-11; Psalm 122:1-2, 6, 8

Antiphon:

Rejoice with Jerusalem and be	glad with	her,	All - - - -	you who	love	her.
----------------------------------	-----------	------	-------------	---------	------	------

That you may feed and be - - - -	satis-	fied	With the consolation -	of her	bos-	om.
-------------------------------------	--------	------	---------------------------	--------	------	-----

Psalm:

I was glad when they	said to	me:	"Let us go into the - -	house	of the	Lord."
----------------------	---------	-----	----------------------------	-------	--------	--------

Our feet have been	stand-	ing	Within your gates, - - -	O Je-	rusa-	lem.
--------------------	--------	-----	-----------------------------	-------	-------	------

Pray for the peace of Je- - - - -	rusa-	lem:	May they prosper - -	who	love	you.
--------------------------------------	-------	------	-------------------------	-----	------	------

For the sake of my brethren and companions I will	now	say,	Peace - - -	be with-	in	you.
---	-----	------	-------------	----------	----	------

Glory be to the Father and - - -	to the	Son,	And to the -	Holy	Spri-	rit,
-------------------------------------	--------	------	--------------	------	-------	------

As it was in the be-	gin-	ning,	Is now and will be for-	ever.	A-	men.
----------------------	------	-------	----------------------------	-------	----	------

The antiphon is repeated.

To our visitors and guests: In accordance with the apostolic command and in unity with the unbroken practice of the Church, University Lutheran Chapel practices Closed Communion. If you are not a member of a congregation in fellowship with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod we kindly ask you to refrain from communing. We do so not to offend you, but because the Scriptures clearly teach that those communing together be unified in their confession of the Faith. In this Sacrament we are not only joined to Christ our Head who is present in His body and blood, but are also knit together with one another as His Body, in which there should be no division of belief. Should you have questions or concerns about this Biblical and historic doctrine, please speak with our pastor. If this is your first time communing at University Lutheran Chapel, please speak with our pastor before the service.

Distribution of the Body and Blood of our Lord

Please be seated until the usher directs you to the altar. The pastor will place the host in your mouth. Please assist in the distribution of the chalice by taking hold of the base of the chalice, guiding the cup to your lips.

Hymns during the Distribution

Clefts in the rock forever be
Where as a dove my soul can hide
And safe from Satan's rage abide.
- 6 And when my spirit flies away,
Thy dying words shall be my stay.
Thy cross shall be my staff in life,
Thy holy grave my rest from strife.
- 7 Lord, in Thy nail-prints let me read
That Thou to save me hast decreed
And grant that in Thine opened side
My troubled soul may ever hide.
- 8 Since Thou hast died, the Pure, the Just,
I take my homeward way in trust.
The gates of heaven, Lord, open wide
When here I may no more abide.
- 9 And when the last Great Day shall come
And Thou, our Judge, shalt speak the doom,
Let me with joy behold the light
And set me then upon Thy right.
- 10 Renew this wasted flesh of mine
That like the sun it there may shine
Among the angels pure and bright,
Yea, like Thyself in glorious light.
- 11 Ah, then I'll have my heart's desire,
When, singing with the angels' choir,
Among the ransomed of Thy grace,
Forever I'll behold Thy face!

WELCOME TO ALL STUDENTS AND VISITORS! We are so pleased that you are here today and hope you will return again and often.

U OF M SPRING BREAK WEEK: There will be no Matins this Monday or Table Talk on Wednesday. There is, however, Vespers on Wednesday evening.

THANK YOU: A very big thank you to Jason Havemeier who has served for the past two years on the Buildings and Grounds Committee. We neglected to list Jason's name last week, but are no less thankful for his service in this and so many other capacities at ULC.

BOOK SWAP: The Great Gathering Book Swap will be held on Saturday at 3 PM at Luther House. Bring three books that you have enjoyed and go home with three that are "new" to you. Wine, beer and cheese will be provided.

C.S. LEWIS PLAY: We are planning an outing to see the award winning stage presentation "C.S. Lewis Onstage: The Most Reluctant Convert" starring Max McLean as Lewis. The show explores Lewis's dramatic conversion from atheistic materialism to Christianity. It will be at the Pantages Theater April 27 and 28. Please contact Karen Henke to sign up! karenhenke@comcast.net

ACL CONFERENCE: The 2018 Congress on the Lutheran Confessions will be held April 18-20 at the Crowne Plaza Aire in Bloomington. The theme for this year's papers is: "What the World Needs Now: Do the Lutheran Confessions Speak to the World Today?" Among the many speakers are Dr. David Scaer, Dr. Detlev Schultz, Rev. Rolf Preus and Rev. Prof. Dennis Marzolf. Registration is $70 for ACL members, $80 for non-members. Students are free.

LSF OPEN HOUSE GAME NIGHT: We're having a game night on Friday, March 23rd and will be inviting all of our neighbors to come too. Be sure to mark your calendars now and plan to be there. More details will be forthcoming as we get closer to the day, or, if you can't wait to learn more, just ask Jesse Greenhagen.

COMMON CHEST: The following items are especially popular from the Common Chest: soup, mac & cheese, pasta, peanut butter, cereal, granola bars, nuts, raisins, canned corn and sweet snacks. Donations of the above will be greeted with happy faces. (We have lots of tomato sauce and toothpaste.)

LENTEN COIN BANKS: Please be sure to pick up a Lenten Coin Bank. By collecting coins this Lententide, you will be helping to purchase text books for Pastor Aadland's seminary students in Matongo Kenya.

LENTEN SERVICES: Our Midweek Lenten services are held at Luther House at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesdays. Pastor is preaching on the Gospel lessons traditionally assigned to the Wednesdays of Lent. (The historic lectionary assigns a particular Gospel reading to each day of the week for the season of Lent.)

TODAY'S BULLETIN ART: Our cover art today is an illumination of the Feeding of the Five Thousand from the Taymouth Hours, England, c.1325-40.

TO PREPARE FOR NEXT SUNDAY:

The Scripture Readings for next Sunday (Judica) are:

Old Testament: Genesis 22:1-14

Epistle: Hebrews 9:11-15

Holy Gospel: John 8:42-59

The Hymns will be: LSB #430, 429, 425, 437, TLH #419, 220, 173

Collects:

The Collect for the Season of Lent:

Almighty and everlasting God, our Father, because You hate nothing that You have made and You forgive the sins of all those who are penitent, create and make in us new and contrite hearts, that we, lamenting our sins and acknowledging our wretchedness, may obtain from You, the God of all mercy, perfect remission and forgiveness; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

The Collect for the Week:

Almighty God, our heavenly Father, we implore You that we, who do worthily deserve to be punished for our evil deeds, may mercifully be relieved by the comfort of Your grace, through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.
