Almighty God, who after Your Son ascended on high did send forth Your Spirit in the Church to draw all men unto You: Fulfill, we implore You, this Your gracious purpose, and in the fullness of time gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth; even in Him, who is Head over all things in the Church which is His body, Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

To our visitors and guests: In accordance with the apostolic command and in unity with the unbroken practice of the Church, University Lutheran Chapel practices Closed Communion. If you are not a member of a congregation in fellowship with the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod we kindly ask you to refrain from communing. We do so not to offend you, but because the Scriptures clearly teach that those communing together be unified in their confession of the Faith. In this Sacrament we are not only joined to Christ our Head who is present in His body and blood, but are also knit together with one another as His Body, in which there should be no division of belief. Should you have questions or concerns about this Biblical and historic doctrine, please speak with our pastor. If this is your first time communing at University Lutheran Chapel, please speak with our pastor before the service.

Distribution of the Body and Blood of our Lord

Please be seated until the usher directs you to the altar. The pastor will place the host in your mouth. Please assist in the distribution of the chalice by taking hold of the base of the chalice, guiding the cup to your lips.

Psalm 96

Antiphon:

Oh sing unto the Lord, alle- - -	lu-	ia!	Sing to the -	Lord,	bless His	name;
Proclaim His salvation from - -	day to	day,	Alleluia, - -	alle-	lu-	ia!

Psalm:

Oh, sing to the Lord a - - - -	new	song!	Sing to the -	Lord,	all the	earth.
Sing to the Lord, -	bless His	name;	good news of His salvation	from	day to	day.
Declare His glory among the - - -	na-	tions,	His wonders a-	mong all	peo-	ples.
For the Lord is great and greatly	to be	praised;	He is to be -	feared a-	bove all	gods.
For all the gods of the peoples are	i-	dols,	But the Lord	made the	hea-	vens.

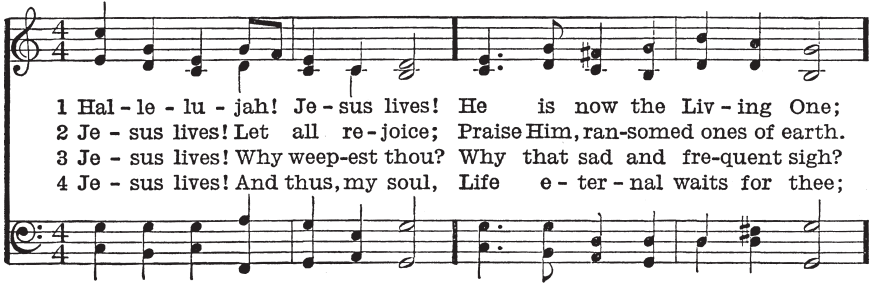

Honor and majesty are be- - - -	fore	Him;	Strength and beauty are -	in His	sanctu-a-	ry.
Give to the Lord, O families of the	peo-	ples,	Give to the Lord - - - -	glo-	ry and	strength.
Give to the Lord the glory - - - -	due His	name;	Bring an offering, and	come in-	to His	courts.
Oh, worship the Lord in the beauty of	holi-	ness!	Tremble before	Him,	all the	earth.
Say among the nations, "The Lord reigns; The world also is firmly established, it shall	not be	moved;	He shall judge the - -	peoples	righteous-	ly.
Let the heavens rejoice, and let the	earth be	glad;	Let the sea roar, and - -	all its	full-	ness;
Let the field be joyful, and all that is - - - -	in	it.	Then all the trees of the woods will re-	joice be-	fore the	Lord.

This Sunday in the Church Year:

“Most assuredly, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in My name He will give you.” (Jn 16:23–33) To pray in Jesus’ name is to pray as one baptized. For it is in the water that He put His name upon you, claiming you as His own, making you sons of God in Him with access to the Father. By His incarnation and crucifixion our Lord Jesus broke through the barrier of sin which separated us from God, opening a portal to the Father. To pray in Jesus’ name is to pray with faith in Him as the one Mediator between God and men, who gave Himself a ransom for all. (1 Timothy 2:1–6) Like Moses in the wilderness, Jesus is our go-between and intercessor before the throne of heaven. He was lifted up for us on the cross that we might be saved and restored to fellowship with the Father. (Num 21:4–9) Looking into this perfect teaching of liberty (James 1:22–27) we pray with boldness and confidence as dear children of God.

About Our Liturgy: Rogation Days

Rogation days are those weekdays in Rogate week prior to Ascension Day. Relating to this Sunday’s focus on prayer, it is customary on these days to fast, to pray the Litany, and to seek the Lord’s protection and blessing for the local congregation and for fields and crops.

The colored woodcut of Moses and the Bronze Serpent comes from the Luther Bible of 1534. On the facing page is a woodcut from a 1534 Bible published by Johann Dietenberger. The ivory carving of the Lamb of God, above, is probably Rhenish and dates from the 11th century. It is part of the collection of the Museo Nazionale del Bargello in Florence.
